TAFT IS WARMED UP.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—The dissatisfaction over the compromise agreement between the operators and officers of the United Mine workers at Columbus, has caused more apprehension in some quarters, especially railroad circles.

United States Marshal Henry Bohl was attending court when summoned here by Judge Taft, of the United States court, today and ordered to exhaust his office in swearing in deputy marshals to enforce the court's injunction against interfering with the run-ning of trains and especially on the B.

& O. system. Judge Taft was very severe in his orders toward Bohl to suppress all violations of the order of the court, and stated that if the marshal could not secure enough deputies for the purpose the court would immediately call on President Cleveland for troops.

It is stated that the commandants of Fort Thomas and Columbus Garrison are advised to be in readiness. Marshal Bohl swore in 50 deputies at once and expects to have several hundred before he leaves at 6 o'clock for Columbus. He will get recruits along the way, stopping at Columbus from 9:40 till midnight, where recruits are to rendezvous and be in waiting for swearing in.

Marshal Bohl will then leave Columbus at midnight with a large force of deputies to be stationed at different points from Cambridge and Bellaire, especially at Wheeling Creek and Bridge-port. Marshal Bohl swore in many old soldiers and railroad men, the latter being very indignant over the situation today. Judge Taft's order is not alone pre-ventative, but absolute on the point of arresting every one interfering with trains.

Amis the nomination in the convention.

IF THERE IS DISCUSSION

Renomination. Governor Lewelling remained in his ings of the convention. A few friends are with him and he receives the reports with much interest. When the news was received that Henderson was elected temporary chairman the governor said: "That is a victory for the suffragists, isn't it?" He relapsed into meditative silence.

A Journal reporter asked: "You are sure of the nomination, aren't you?" "I don't know; you cannot tell what a Populist convention will do. The delegates don't fix up things like the Republicans. They won't stand any combination. The report went out that Brown was the administration candidate for temporary chairman, which was not true, but you see he was turned down just the same. "Will you accept the nomination if it is made?"

"I do not know yet whether I shall accept the nomination or not, but if it comes to me with enthusiasm and the utmost unanimity I shall accept. If I find that the opposition is serious and that it will injure the chances of the party at the election in November I shall decline the nomination."

READY FOR SUFFRAGE.

Dunsmore Says He is Very Friendly to the Movement.

Ex-Speaker Dunsmore, of the Populist house of representatives, went to Representative hall as soon as he reached the city. He went up to the speaker's stand and stood proudly up behind the speaker's desk and surveyed the empty chairs in the room.

"You see," he said, "right here is where slept, and there is where Douglass stretched out and kept me company. "We won't have any more legislative wars," said he, "for the Populists have things their own way now.' "How do you stand on the suffrage question?" "I am very friendly to it. I think we ought to declare the fact that the matter is now before the public and that it is a question which every one should consider, but that no man's political affiliation should be determined by his vote on the question. I shall accept the judg-

"I will tell you how that was worked," interposed a well known Populist. "He is just as much opposed to the administration as ever but Breidenthal fixed it so that he would not be here. He sent up to Dakota and had them offer Willits a good round sum to go up there and make a speech or two and he went. The same thing was done with Scott two years ago when the crowd was a little leary of him. He was sent to Tennessee. That's how it happens that

Willits is not here today." WHERE IS THE CROWD?

Breidenthal's Wagon Brigade Not on Hand to Attend the Convention,

The big crowd that was expected to be on hand to attend the convention failed to materialize and not a single farmer's team was found on the State fair grounds this morning. The grounds had been secured by Chairman Breidenthal as a camping ground and various estimates were given out as to the number expected, varying from 2,500 to 10,000. Delegations in wagons were expected from, all surrounding counties.

AGAINST SUFFRAGE.

The Sixth District is Opposed to Its Going in the Platform.

The first caucus of the convention was held at Lincoln Post hall last night and the Sixth district delegates selected their members of the committee on resolutions, credentials and members of the state central committee.

The sentiment in the caucus was against suffrage, and J. F. Hicks, of Beloit, an anti-suffragist, was chosen to represent the district on the committee on resolutions.

W. W. Mettler was named as a member of the committee on resolutions, and J. F. Hale, of Jewell, and O. L. Smith, of Phillips, were selected members of the new state central committee. A. B. Montgomery, of Goodland, was chairman of the caucus.

THE WOMENS' ENEMY. P. P. Elder Manipulating the Convention Against Suffrage. P. P. Elder, speaker of the first Populist house of representatives is a member of the committee on resolutions and the women who hope for a suffrage plank looked scared when they heard he was on the committee, and well they might, for Elder is a fighter, and he will oppose the plank with all his power. "I am against suffrage," said he to a reporter, "and I don't care who knows

I do not favor putting it into the platform because it is a distinct proposition submitted by the legislature and it is unwise to commit a party to the measure when it is pending before the people. I do not believe they can put it into the platform."

It is miserably, washy and meaningless. They forgot two words, 'sound currency' and 'honest money,' which have been in all their platforms for fifteen years. They also forgot to say anything against the Democrats. "What do you think of that?" asked

he, with a knowing wink.

"That is all I have to say. Now if you use my picture don't use that one they have used in Kansas City. It makes me look like Sitting Bull, and you can see yourself that I am a pretty good looking

ANNA SHAW AND INGALLS.

Something About the Republican Platform Being Like Burnished Brass.

The Woman's Progressive Political league held a meeting yesterday afternoon at Representative hall. Mrs. Bina A. Otis delivered her annual address.

Miss Susan B. Anthony was called. Among other things she said: "I have received letters from prominent Republicans begging me not to go before the Populist convention to ask for a suffrage plank. They tell me they are afraid it will injure our cause. They have grown extremely solicitous all at once about the suffrage cause." This was said with a tinge of sarcasm which provoked a great deal of laughter.

"Now," she said, "I will say to you as Napoleon said, wait till you see what your enemy is going to do and then do the other thing."

Rev. Anna Shaw was the next speaker. "We asked the Republicans for a suffrage plank," she said, "and the only thing they gave us was a low, coarse, vulgar, contemptible song which was a disgrace to the state." (The speaker referred to the song entitled, "Throw a Dollar at Me," sung by one of the Modocs, attired to impersonate Mrs. Lease.) Speaking of the Republican platform she said: "Ingalls says it is smooth as burnished brass." I think it is, for it is so smooth you can't stand on it any place. I come from down east, where they have eels, but I never saw an eel as slippery as that platform."

Mrs. Chapman Catt spoke for a few moments. She closed with the words: "If I were a Populist I would rather go down to defeat with a suffrage plank in a sensible platform than to victory with a platform that means nothing." Mrs. Diggs introduced the following resolution, which was adopted without a dissenting vote. The delegates present voted for the resolution: Whereas, The People's party came into existence and won its glorious victory on the fundamental principle of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, therefore be it Resolved, That the delegates of the Woman's Progressive league, in convention assembled, declare in favor of the pending constitutional amendment, and we ask our party to place itself on rec-ord in favor of this measure of justice,

THEY DEMAND A CHANGE.

Hold a Meeting. An anti-administration meeting was held at Trades' Assembly hall last night. NAL reporter was told that he was in The crowd was about evenly divided between those favorable and those opposed to the administration, but the delegates who were for the administration were in the back part of the hall and applauded vigorously any favorable reference to

N. M. Thompson of Wyandotte county was the chairman of the meeting. Frank Radford of Topeka was the first speaker, and arraigned the administration for political manipulation of the Populist county convention.

An affidavit was read from Patrick Langdon, ex-police commissioner of Atchison. The affidavit stated that joints and gambling houses were run at Atchison. The police board had been fixed up to wink at the evasion of the law and that the old board was discharged because they would not cater to the whisky element. It also stated that Adjutant General Davis was sent to Atchison by Governor Lewelling to make this change, and it was currently understood that he had received $800 to have the old board removed. Q. A. Baldwin, chairman of the county central committee, of Leavenworth, denounced Governor Lewelling for ap-pointing Mrs. Blackman on the police board contrary to the wishes of Leavenworth Populists.

T. H. Gallagher of Leavenworth, said that the administration delegates were allowed their expenses to the convention and given $5 besides.

F. H. Pettengill, president of the Leavenworth county alliance: "If the delegates from our county vote for the administration they won't express the sentiments of Leavenworth Populists."

Ed. S. Waterbury of Lyon county: "I have found that you are not all sore-heads, but I am for the administration." D. J. Smith, member of the Populist state central committee, from McPherson county: "I got out of a sick bed to come here and I am not well enough to talk to you, but I could tell you a story of Dick Chase, Breidenthal and others; of fraud and debauchery, that would cause the scales to fall from your eyes. I want to predict that if the old crowd is nominated we won't be in it in November, and many good Populists feel just like

Warren Foster of Hutchinson: "I am for Lewelling and I consider this the most disgraceful meeting I ever attended." The words had scarcely left his mouth when there were loud cries of "shut up" and "put him out," "why don't you get out of here, then?" but he held his ground and made an administra-

He said Lewelling was a friend of the poor and that he would like to exchange bank accounts with him on high. #### MRS. DIGGS IS JOYFUL. She Is Sure the Suffragists Will Be Well

Treated Now. The suffragists are more than happy ver the result of this morning's session of the convention. Mrs. Annie L. Diggs, who is to go before the committee on resolutions and lead the fight for the insertion of a suffrage plank in the platform, said after the noon adjournment: "The sentiment of the convention is with us, and the selection of Ben 8. Henderson as chairman was a big victory for our cause. The selection of the committees from the congressional districts is not just what we wanted with Henderson as chairman, but it is as broad as it is long, and we can well afford to take our chances with the convention." When Mrs. Diggs goes before the committee on resolutions she will take with her an enormous petition containing the names of over nine thousand men and women from twenty-seven counties asking for a suffrage plank in the platform. The petition reads as follows: "To the People's party in convention as-sembled in Topeka on June 12:—We the undersigned declare with Abraham Lincoin that we 'go for all sharing the privileges of the government who assist in bearing its burdens, by no means excluding women.' "The privilege of helping the gov-ernment is now denied to the women of Kansas. The pending amendment proposes to right this wrong, and we hereby call upon you as one of the parties responsible for the submission of the amendment, to make favorable platform utterances on this question."

How a Populist Delegation Looking for Beer Got Fooled. About fifteen of the third partyites who arrived in town yesterday from their mortgage-burdened farms concluded that this was a right good time to flush their gutters of any superfluous grain chaff that might have lodged therein. Accordingly they found a bootbiack who put them onto the location of the "Capital Club" and they made the tedious secont up two flights of stairs.

"What do you fellows want?" he demanded.
"Beer," breathed the delegation as one man, in tones not unlike the soulful trill of the corn sheller.

"Are you members of this club?" asked the white-aproned autocrat with a snap that made one man bite his "No-o," they faltered as they hung to each other's coat backs, a procession that looked like the tail of the Democratic eagle trailing down the stairway. "Then you don't get in here," and the

A STAR CHAMBER.

The People Not Allowed to Know How Much Boodling Went On. Washington, June 12.-H. O. Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar refinery, has responded to a summons of Senator Gray's investigating committee, and appeared before the committee today to give his testimony.

The doors were closed against the press as usual, and the proceedings were strictly private. It is known, however, that Mr. Havemeyer was subjected to a very rigid examination concerning his visits to Washington last spring, while the tariff bill was in its formulative process in the senate finance committee and in regard to his interviews with senators.

Topeka Authors. Two citizens of Topeka have recently carried off first prizes offered by eastern publishers, in open contest for the whole United States, for high grade literary productions. Such things are a great credit to our Kansas capital, and tonight one of the prize winners will be on the authors' programme at Library hall.

The following list of writers will appear tonight:

Rev. C. M. Sheldon, W. C. Campbell, S. M. Gardenhire, J. Willis Gleed, Dr. Henry W. Roby, Mrs. A. P. Wilder, Miss Myra Williams and Miss Mary E. Mo-Cabe, each contributing a sketch, story or paper.

The programme will be supplemented musically by Mrs. Judge Foster, Mr. Shirer, Miss Hollister and Miss Tracy, all of such prominence as to insure a first class entertainment. The admission will be only 25 cents, so that all may enjoy a rare treat at trifling cost. Good work done by the Peerless.
